

Juvenile Privacy Notice

What we do with your personal data when you join Drogheda Credit Union?

Drogheda Credit Union collects your information and that relating to your parents or legal guardian for a number of reasons. Under the law, we must tell you how we will collect that information, how we will use it and how long we will hold it for. In this notice, you will see different names or terms used that you may not be familiar with, such as:

- Data controller: This person (or group of people, like Drogheda Credit Union) is in charge of the information we collect.
- Data processor: This person processes information for the data controller (i.e., Drogheda Credit Union).
- Data Protection Officer: The Drogheda Credit Union Data Protection Officer is the person we have appointed to make sure we do everything the law says.
- Personal data/your information: This means any information that can be used to identify someone, such as your address and date of birth.

Who looks after your information?

Drogheda Credit Union is the data controller of the personal data you give us - we look at how and why your information is collected and used.

Do you have to give us your information?

You must give us quite a lot of the information we need for us to keep your Drogheda Credit Union account open, but there is some information that you can choose whether to let us have or not. When we ask you for information that you don't have to give us, we will ask for your permission and let you know why we want it and what we will do with it. If you don't want us to have the information in those cases, you won't have to give it.

What information do we collect?

Your name, address, date of birth, information about your savings, your signature, and identification documents like passport or birth certificate (for you and your parent/legal guardian).

Getting in touch

If you're worried about how we get and use your information, you can speak to our Data Protection Officer at Drogheda credit union, who will be able to help you and answer any questions that you have.

If you want to speak to somebody not at Drogheda Credit Union, you can call the people who make sure that organisations like us are looking after your information correctly. They are called the Data Protection Commissioner (DPC):

You can contact the Data Protection Commission at <https://www.dataprotection.ie/en/contact/how-contact-us>

Data Protection Commission
21 Fitzwilliam Square South
Dublin 2, Ireland

Why do we need the information?

We will only collect your information when we need it to help us do our job or to follow the law. When we've collected it, here's how we use it:

- To open and maintain your account
- To make sure we do things correctly under the rules of Drogheda Credit Union and the law;
- To get in touch with you and your parents/legal guardians when we need to.

Will your information be shared?

Sometimes Drogheda Credit Union has to give your information to other people, such as our data processors, our regulators, and the government. When your data is given to someone else, they must use it only in the way in which we tell them to and look after it and keep it safe.

How long will we keep your information?

We don't keep it forever, only for as long as we need it to help us do the thing, we needed it for. We have a policy that tells us when to keep it and when to get rid of it.

Would you like to know more?
